"Elevate Dance Ministry has been an answer to prayer in our family's life. Having a teen daughter, who loves dance, we have been exposed to many dance studios. Once our daughter entered her teen years, we were searching for something more. We wanted something that would pour into our daughter, build her confidence and help her grow as an individual. When we found Elevate, we received that and so much more! Elevate has not only grown her confidence as a dancer, but as a child of God as well. Her teachers are amazing and have poured into her as not just a student, but as an individual. They take the time to pray with her, listen to her concerns regarding dance, and life as well. The standards they set are top-notch and they encourage a deeper relationship with God. Her confidence seems to grow with every single class. I personally love the music choices, the modest, yet beautiful costumes and the friendships that she has developed here. I recommend Elevate to everyone!"
